Woman of the Year Award Policy

There are AB women who have been serving the Lord through the ABW who have not held state office but silently serve the Lord with all they can give. To give recognition for the hard work for the Lord they have done there is the AB Woman of the Year award.

Guidelines:

- Put questionnaire form in every issue of the American Baptist Women of Michigan newsletter. (News and Views)
- Put questionnaire form on American Baptist Women of Michigan website, E-Link and any media available to American Baptist Women.
- Have questionnaire form available at all American Baptist Women's meetings. (region, area)
- Turn in the Questionnaire to ABWM president.
  - Turn in form at meetings or mail to the American Baptist Women's Region President
  - Questionnaire due date April 15th each year.
- At the last board meeting before conference the President, Coordinator of Conference and Events and Co-Coordinator of Conference and Events will go thru all the forms submitted to see who receives the award. If there is no clear winner.
  - How many forms were turned in for each nominee
  - If there is one nominee who stands out from all others
- The president will be responsible to order the award plaque.
- The award will be presented by the previous woman of the year or the region president.
